

n

v

Remind me, what are the 4 word classes?

a

a

Let's match them up again!

noun

describes a noun

verb

person, place, object, thing

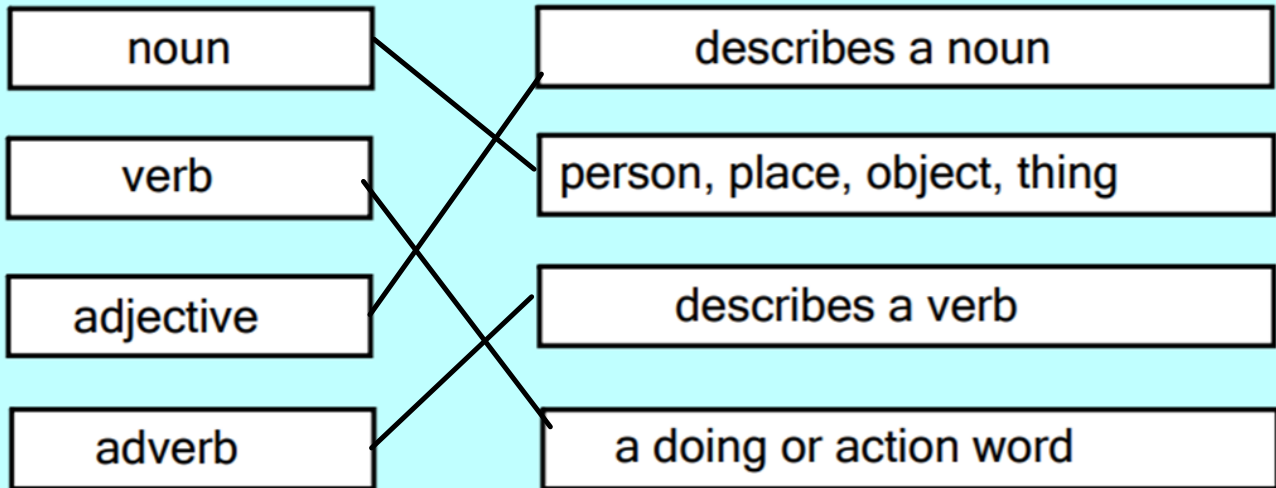

adjective

describes a verb

adverb

a doing or action word

Let's match them up again!

LI: To use precise vocabulary.

By using expanded noun phrases for accurate description.

Which of these word classes will I expect to see in an expanded noun phrase?

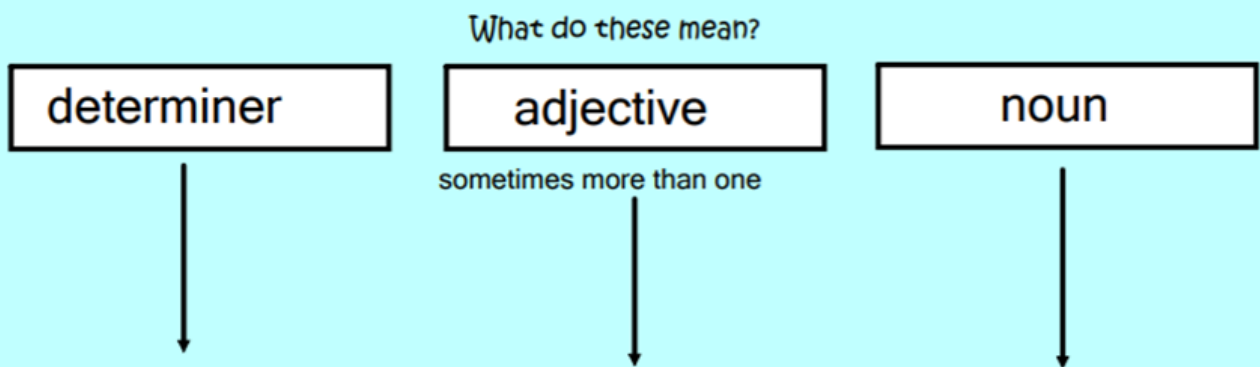

noun

verb

adjective

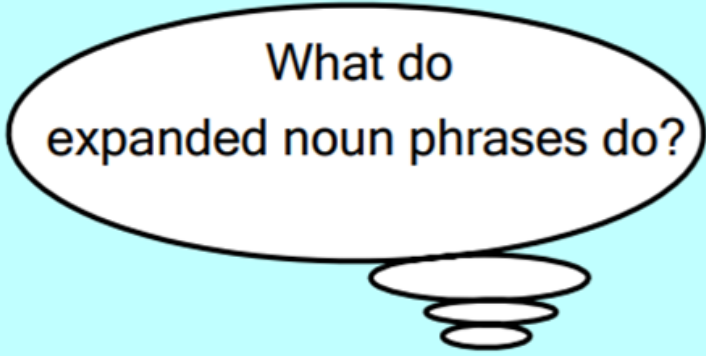

adverb

An expanded noun phrase contains...

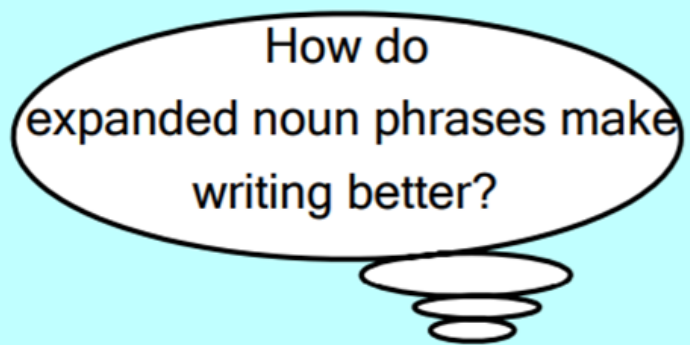

An expanded noun phrase contains...

What do expanded noun phrases do?

How do expanded noun phrases make writing better?

Expanded noun phrases add more detail and makes your writing more interesting.

How do expanded noun phrases make writing better?

What do expanded noun phrases do?

Are these expanded noun phrases (ENPs) precise?

A furry, purple soldier marched quickly to the quiet battle.

Quietly, the loud, jumpy, noisy, blue, greedy, funny legionnaire sneaked in.

Are these expanded noun phrases (ENPs) precise?

A furry, purple soldier marched quickly to the quiet battle.

This isn't precise because a soldier wouldn't be furry or purple.

Quietly, the loud, jumpy, noisy, blue, greedy, funny legionnaire sneaked in.

This isn't precise because there are too many adjectives and the adjectives used are not appropriate for the sentence.

Improve these sentences- The words that are underlined needs to be expanded to make them more interesting but they need to be appropriate.

The Earth spun slowly in the atmosphere.

Rewrite improved sentence here

Quietly, the ground trembled.

Rewrite improved sentence here

Remember, the rule of three...no more than three adjectives.

Improve these sentences- The words that are underlined needs to be expanded to make them more interesting but they need to be appropriate.

Slowly, the smoke floated.

Rewrite improved sentence here

Rapidly, the lava burst.

Rewrite improved sentence here

Remember, the rule of three...no more than three adjectives.

Now it's your turn to have a go at expanding sentence yourself. Please see the activity PDF.